Two Colleges to Be Improved with Bond Issue Funds

Junior colleges providing post-high school educational and technical training opportunities for the Harbor and south areas will share in benefits to be derived from passage of the $158,500,000 school bond issue—Propositions D, E, and F—on the June 3 ballot, it was announced this week by Los Angeles City School System officials.

Two junior colleges serving this area which are operated by the City School System will be improved with funds from the proposed bond issue. They are Harbor Junior College, 1111 Figueroa pl., Wilmington, and Los Angeles Trade-Technical Junior College, 400 West Washington Blvd. Although located in downtown Los Angeles, this college serves a large number of Harbor and south area students by providing specialized training in the various trades.

"The funds which we are seeking in this bond issue will be utilized to continue the expansion of our junior college system which was initiated following passage of the 1955 bond issue," Superintendent of Schools Ellis A. Jarvis stated. "This development program has been planned in order to prepare our colleges for the throngs of students who we know will be flooding this area's institutions of higher education in the next few years."

The Dentist Says:
By DR. ERNEST J. TARR

Reducing Nervousness During Visit

"I need many teeth pulled, but I'm very nervous at a Dental office. What can be done about this?" asks Mrs. B. F. of Torrance.

Modern American Dentistry has made great progress in recent years to ease Dental pain and reduce nervousness during dental procedures. Here are several methods to choose from:

1. Prior to any dental work the patient is given tablets that help to relax and reduce fears. This works well for those who are mildly nervous.
 2. For those more nervous, the patient can be put to sleep by either Sodium Penthol or Sodium Seconal. In our office there is no extra charge for extractions with either Novocaine or Sodium Penthol or Sodium Seconal.
 3. If the patient has hospitalization insurance either through employment or Blue Cross or C.P.S. then the extraction can be done at the local hospital with Sodium Penthol and the patient can stay in the hospital a day or two. The cost is usually paid by the insurance.
- One of these methods usually suits those who are mildly nervous to those severely nervous. Feel free to discuss your problem in detail in the near future. No appointment necessary. Open every evening and all day Saturday.

EASY CREDIT FOR OUT-OF-STATE PATIENT

OPEN EVES. AND SAT. get Credit for Dental care I need?" asks Mr. G. L. P. of Gardena.

Yes. We welcome out of state patients and extend them liberal credit terms.

When a patient comes in our office we make an examination of their teeth and give them an exact estimate of what the cost will be.

Credit terms can be arranged to fill every type of need. No down payment is necessary. As long as 18 months to pay. Six weeks before a payment is necessary, also all the family can have their teeth fixed and pay one small monthly payment.

We also have a good Credit plan for those who don't have Credit established at all. We also welcome pensioners in our office and make arrangements for the state to pay most of their necessary Dental bill. Our office will make every effort to solve your credit problem. No appointment necessary. Open every evening and all day Saturday.
